Guidelines for Namami Bharatam Programme

Programme :

1. Name of the Programme: Mass Singing of the “Vande Mataram” - Namami Bharatam
2. Date and Time: 25 September 2026 (Pt. Deendayal Upadhyaya Jayanti), 11:00 AM
3. Venue: School premises; public places in villages and wards; village/town playgrounds; government offices; institutions where former Acharyas and former students are working; and associated/contact schools.

Objectives :

1. To awaken a sense of national pride, cultural consciousness, and devotion towards the motherland among students and all stakeholders.
2. To nurture a sense of pride and respect for “Vande Mataram” in the minds of the present and future generations.
3. To organise the programme on a large scale and make efforts towards creating a record in the Guinness Book of World Records.

Guidelines for the Guinness Book of World Records :

1. One Date, One Time, One Voice – the complete Vande Mataram should be sung collectively in one voice.
2. Maximum participation should be ensured.
3. The programme should be organised in a disciplined and orderly manner, with participants standing in rows or in a circular formation, according to the venue.
4. Video recording of the programme is mandatory. Attendance/documentation should also be maintained through photographs and, wherever necessary, aerial/drone or high-angle photographs showing the collective gathering.
5. Photographs should clearly display the number of participants, name of the school, venue, and time of the programme.
6. A participant attendance list should be prepared and duly certified by the Principal/Head of the Institution. The document should be safely preserved.
7. After the programme, the photographs, videos, number of participants, and a brief report of the programme should be sent to the concerned Coordination Centre in the prescribed format.

Participants :

Students, Acharyas (teachers), staff members, members of the SMC, parents, former students, former teachers, and other citizens.

Programme Outline :

1. The programme may be organised in the following manner: Collective singing of the complete Vande Mataram in a full and clear voice → Lighting of the lamp and Vandana/Brahmanad → Introduction of the Guests → Welcome and felicitation → Introductory Speech by Principal → Information about Vande Mataram by the invited guest(s)/speaker(s) → (Other Programme, if Required at School level) → Ekal Geet → Address by the Chief Guest → Presidential Address → Vote of Thanks.
2. A subject expert from Vidya Bharati or other organisations may be invited as the speaker. For the chairpersonship, a prominent person from society may be invited.
3. The primary objective of the programme is public awareness. Therefore, special attention should be given to punctuality, discipline, proper management, and dignity of the programme.

Attention: Principals / Headmasters / Ekal Vidyalaya Teachers / School Programme Coordinators
Please ensure that Annexures 1, 2, 3 and 4 are duly completed, verified and submitted to the Prant Karyalaya (MSS Office) by 1:00 PM on 25 September 2026.
